Donna Rosa 2015

The right tone.

Freshness and delicacy.

It represents the pure expression of the region, for a wine of conviviality.

Mistress of the country.

This delicate color wine characterized by seductive fragrances was named Donna Rosa in honor of the lady of these regions. The freshness of the rolle, the grenache's voluptuousness, the syrah's depth and the delicacy of the cinsault provide a wide range of aromas thus leading to a final impression of great extent

Appellation

Tasting

The color is light rose, crystalline and pure. The bouquet gently express itself with aromas of peach and white flowers. The beginning in the mouth is both mineral, live and delicate. The end impression is round and fruity, with a nice persistence and a hint of acidity that bring about a pleasant freshness.

Ideal complements

To combine with grilled meat or fish, mixed salad or simply as aperitif with Occitan speciality : tapenades, poichichade, aubergine's caviar ...
